

Working together: Fire managers and archaeologists

DAY 2- Wednesday November 28, 2018, Sabino Room- Marriott University Park

0800-0810	Welcome! - Andi Thode and Barb Satink Wolfson, Southwest Fire Science Consortium
0810-0830	Introduction to Wildfire Management and Cultural Resources Importance of fire on the landscape, importance of protecting cultural resources within the context of fire Presenter: Art Gonzales, Kaibab National Forest
0830-1000	Panel Discussion- Challenges surrounding the intersection between managing wildfires, cultural resources and the role of archaeology within the Incident Management Team sphere Panelists: Mike Lewelling, National Park Service; Will Reed, U.S. Forest Service; Lisa Hanson, National Park Service; Jason Nez, Fire Archaeologist (AD) Moderator: Neil Weintraub, U.S. Forest Service
1000-1030	BREAK
1030-1100	Panel Discussion Wrap-up, audience questions Moderator: Neil Weintraub, U.S. Forest Service
1100-1200	Small Group Discussion- pull out your pink sheet <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Please sit with folks you DON'T know!</li> <li>• Maximum of 4 red dots or 6 blue dots at any one table</li> <li>• Choose representative to note take and share</li> <li>• Choose 1 of 5 potential questions to discuss within your group</li> </ul>
1200-1330	LUNCH
1330-1430	Roles and Responsibilities- How should both disciplines work together? Presenters: Linn Gassaway, Lassen National Forest; Chris Marks, Grand Canyon National Park
1430-1500	Q&A for Linn Gassaway and Chris Marks
1500-1530	BREAK
1530-1700	Small Group Discussion- pull out your pink sheet <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Please sit with folks you DON'T know!</li> <li>• Maximum of 4 red dots or 6 blue dots at any one table</li> <li>• Choose representative to note take and share</li> <li>• Choose a scenario- how can you effectively communicate "your" perspective?</li> </ul>
1730-1930	SOCIAL HOUR! Join us for a cash bar (alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks available for purchase) and a selection of appetizers – Canyons Room--

DAY 3- Thursday November 29, 2018, Sabino Room- Marriott University Park

0800-0810	Welcome back!
0810-1000	Develop a framework for fire managers to work positively with archaeologists and other technical specialists; lessons learned through personal experience and relationships Panelist Pairs:: Joshua Massey, Gila River Indian Community AND Alan Sinclair, Bureau of Indian Affairs; Keith Halloran, Coconino National Forest AND Neil Weintraub, Kaibab National Forest; Chris Marks AND Ellen Brennan, Grand Canyon National Park
1000-1030	BREAK
1030-1100	Large Group Discussion- audience questions Moderator: Rachel Loehman, USGS
1100-1200	Small Group Discussion- pull out your pink sheet <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Please sit with folks you DON'T know!</li> <li>• Maximum of 4 red dots or 6 blue dots at any one table</li> <li>• Choose representative to note take and share</li> <li>• What steps will you take on your home unit to begin to establish relationships</li> </ul>
1200-1250	LUNCH- short lunch, PLEASE BE ON TIME!
1250-1730	Field Trip to Tumamoc Hill Meet in lobby @ 1250